

Steve Schnall

Senior Vice President and Chief Development Officer, Phoenix Children's Hospital Foundation

Steven Schnall is the Senior Vice President and Chief Development Officer for the Phoenix Children's Hospital Foundation.

Schnall has served Phoenix Children's since 1983. As Senior Vice President and Chief Development Officer, Phoenix Children's Hospital Foundation, Schnall provides leadership for all aspects of philanthropy for the Hospital, including principle gifts, events and planned giving. Under his direction, the Foundation has led successful campaigns that supported development of the freestanding Phoenix Children's Hospital, as well as the Julie and Tim Louis Neonatal Intensive Care Unit, the Bubba Watson and PING Motion Analysis Lab and many more.

Schnall's prior roles at Phoenix Children's included Vice President, Business Development and Outreach where his responsibilities included strategic planning, community relations, physician relations and grants. Schnall has also served as Vice President, Ambulatory Services and additional administrative posts for the Hospital.

Schnall is a graduate of Arizona State University where he received a Bachelor of Arts degree in Psychology. He received a Master of Arts in Organizational Management from University of Phoenix.

About Phoenix Children's Hospital

Phoenix Children's Hospital is Arizona's only children's hospital recognized by U.S. News & World Report's Best Children's Hospitals with rankings in all ten specialties. Phoenix Children's provides world-class inpatient, outpatient, trauma, emergency and urgent care to children and families in Arizona and throughout the Southwest. As one of the largest children's hospitals in the country, Phoenix Children's provides care across more than 75 pediatric specialties. The Hospital is poised for continued growth in quality patient care, research and medical education. For more information about the hospital, visit <http://www.phoenixchildrens.org>.

###